HOW WILL BREXIT AFFECT THE LIVES OF BRITISH PEOPLE? A NEW REPORT GIVES UNEXPECTED DETAILS.

Following the result of the General Election that was held on December 12th 2019, the United Kingdom is now certain to leave the European Union on 31st January 2020. The consequences will affect the lives of the whole population. A new study has been published showing the expected influence of BREXIT on the traditional British Christmas.

In an exclusive "TESTING TIMES" report, we can today reveal some of the most significant changes.

Children across the country will be pleased to hear that Christmas dinner will now be served without Brussels.

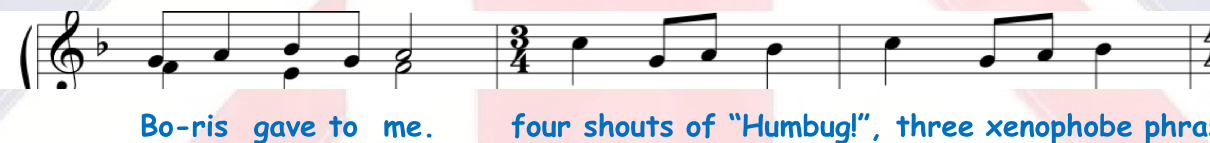

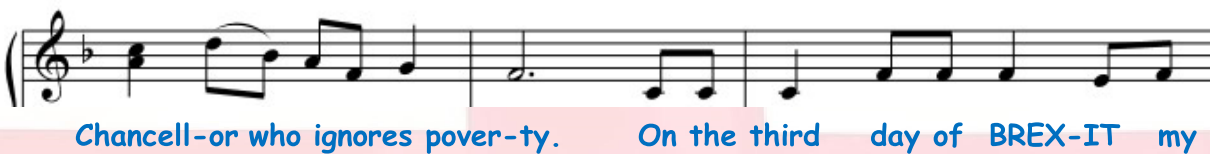

Christmas stories will change, e.g. "Twas the night before BREXIT, when all through the House (of Commons)", as will Christmas pantomimes, e.g. "Jack and the British (!) Beanstalk", "Aladdin in Number 10"

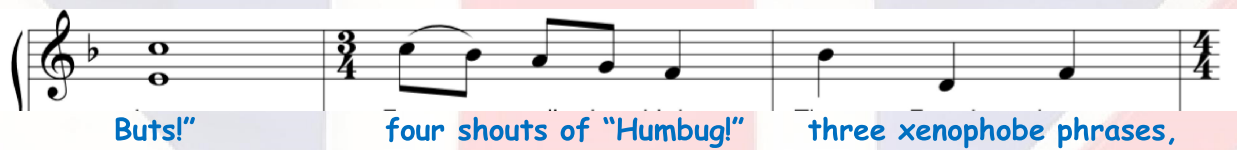

Christmas carols and other seasonal songs will be re-texted, e.g. "I'm dreaming of a Hard BREXIT", "The First No-Deal", "In the Bleak Post-BREXIT", "God Bless You Merry BREXIT-men", and - in an attempt to attract specialised workers from non-EU countries - "Oh come, all ye Skilful".

On the following pages readers will find the new version of a well-known Christmas song published by BREXIT sceptics.

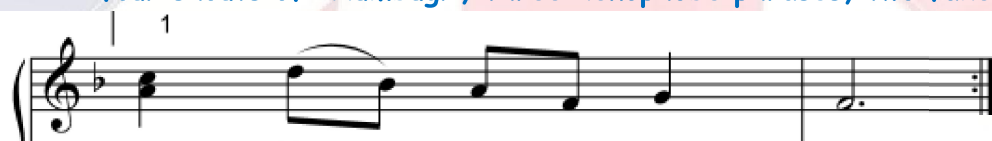

"I wish you a Merry
BREXIT and a
Happy No-Deal!"
